

Publications order form: Members only

Members are entitled to one free copy of each of our publications on request. Please use this form to order hard copies if you require them, enclosing a cheque made out to FCFCG for the appropriate sum should you require extra copies. Most of our publications are also available as free downloads from the Info Zone on our website at www.farmgarden.org.uk/infozone

Community garden starter pack

First copy: free Additional copies: £6

This has been written to help with the often complex issues involved in starting or developing a community garden. It contains advice on various topics including legal obligations, fundraising and negotiating for a site. For groups in Scotland, an edition is available incorporating Scottish law and contact details – please indicate below if you would like to receive this version.

Please send me the Scottish edition:

Number of copies:

City farm starter pack

First copy: free Additional copies: £6

As above, but with the inclusion of livestock information for groups starting a city farm. For groups in Scotland, an edition is available incorporating Scottish law and contact details – please indicate below if you would like to receive this version.

Please send me the Scottish edition:

Number of copies:

Chillies & Roses: Inspiring ethnic minority involvement at community gardens and farms

First copy: free Additional copies: £10

Working alongside minority ethnic communities is an important element of the community gardens and city farms movement. This fantastic full-colour 44-page publication showcases examples of good practice and identifies innovative ideas that will help community initiatives meet the needs of, and engage with, multi-ethnic communities.

Number of copies:

Please turn over

Farm and garden postcard bundle

First copy: free Additional copies: £2

This beautiful postcard bundle contains 17 images from city farms and community gardens across the country, taken by FCFCG Artist in Residence 2005, Nessie Ramm. The images celebrate the contrast of landscapes at these wonderful and varied projects, with tower blocks, factories and houses forming the backdrop to grazing animals and blooming flowers. Members are entitled to one free copy. Additional copies are £1 each.

Number of copies:

Grains Education Pack

First copy: free Additional copies: £2

The Grains Education Pack covers the universal themes of grains and bread, which act as a vital food source for the majority of the planet. Especially suited for use with Key Stage 2 pupils. Please note that this publication is currently only available as a colour photocopy.

Number of copies:

Online Resource Centre

Don't forget that these publications, and many more useful resources, are available to members for free from: www.farmgarden.org.uk/infozone

Your details

Name: Position:.....

Organisation:

Address:

.....

Contact tel/email Date:.....

Please return this form to: FCFCG, The GreenHouse, Hereford St, Bristol, BS3 4NA